DOWNTURNS

Products that sell. That's what keeps downturns from wreaking havoc on your bottom line. Consumers want floors that perform. They want floors that stand up to their sloppy, messy, rough-and-tumble families for a very long time. They want floors that add value to their homes like those found in our Good Living Series. That is performance. That is NAFCO Luxury Vinyl Tile. Visit us at Surfaces to learn more about selling floors that make sense for today's consumers.
